OWNERSHIP & ADMINISTRATION

BRYAN GLAZER
CO-CHAIRMAN

Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer enters his 21st year with the Buccaneers, working tirelessly to support the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer, who oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club, has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League and has become a leader in the Bay Area, recognized for his tremendous community work.

The Buccaneers have posted 148 regular season wins and five playoff wins with seven playoff appearances under Glazer's leadership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase, which included advancement to the postseason just three times from 1976-94.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

In 2014, the franchise welcomed its 10th head coach, as the Glazer family selected Lovie Smith to lead the team. It was a homecoming for Smith, whose first NFL coaching position was tutoring linebackers as a member of Tony Dungy's Tampa Bay staff from 1996-2000, and the choice was roundly lauded in NFL circles. Smith brings stability and a wealth of experience to the Buccaneers, taking the reins following nine years (2004-12) as head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XLI, as well as being name AP and PFW/PFWA Coach of the Year in 2005. Securing Smith for the Buccaneers highlighted the Glazer family's enduring commitment to bringing excellence to the Bay Area.

Glazer's dedication to the Bay Area is also highlighted in constructing Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted both Super Bowl XXXV in 2001 and Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to the Bay Area, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the Tampa Bay community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. Glazer is committed to continuing to bring future Super Bowls to the area.

Glazer's innovative approach to business and penchant for thinking outside the box has resulted in many new developments for the club, including the creation of the Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' sponsors with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

In addition to his business achievements, Glazer also has been involved in a number of vital football-related efforts directly related to the on-the-field success experienced by the Buccaneers, certainly including, but not limited to, the team's first Super Bowl championship.

A native of Rochester, New York, Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee, as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes regular community and charitable appearances on behalf of the Glazer Family Foundation, which was honored as Foundation of the Year by the Tampa Bay Sports Commission in 2011.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened in Tampa in 2010, in large part due to the Foundation's gift of $5 million. In addition to serving on the museum's Board of Directors, Glazer is also a member of the Moffitt Cancer Center National Board of Advisors, The Board of Directors Advisory Council for Ronald McDonald House, the advisory board for the Outback Bowl, and, in spring of 2011, he served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball.

Glazer's efforts to remain connected and active in the Bay Area community continued in 2015, as he played a key role in financing the development of a state-of-the-art Jewish Community Center that is scheduled to open in West Tampa by the end of 2016. The campus, which will be named the Bryan Glazer Family JCC, will serve an important role in the revitalization of the surrounding area, providing a place for families and community to come together.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. He resides in Tampa with his wife Shanna.

JOEL GLAZER
CO-CHAIRMAN

The fast-paced and ultra-competitive environment that characterizes the National Football League is a perfect match for Joel Glazer's business acumen. These attributes have proven integral to the Buccaneers' transformation into one of the most successful franchises in the league.

Now in his 21st season with the Buccaneers, Co-Chairman Joel Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, oversees the day-to-day operations of the franchise, ensuring the club achieves and maintains the highest levels of success in all aspects.

The family's leadership and dedication to the team is evidenced by the Buccaneers' seven playoff berths and first-ever Super Bowl Championship – all of which have come under Glazer ownership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family.

As Co-Chairman, Glazer's keen insight and tireless dedication continue to enhance the reputation of the Buccaneers. Glazer has passionately spearheaded a number of vital efforts throughout the years that have not only helped shape the club into a contender, but a model NFL franchise as well.

Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995: build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed their first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took the NFC South in 2005 and 2007.

In 2014, the franchise welcomed its 10th head coach, as the Glazer family selected Lovie Smith to lead the team. It was a homecoming for Smith, whose first NFL coaching position was tutoring linebackers as a member of Tony Dungy's Tampa Bay staff from 1996-2000, and the choice was roundly lauded in NFL circles. Smith brings stability and a wealth of experience to the Buccaneers, taking the reins following nine years (2004-12) as head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XLI, as well as being name AP and PFW/PFWA Coach of the Year in 2005. Securing Smith for the Buccaneers highlighted the Glazer family's enduring commitment to bringing excellence to the Bay Area.

Glazer, promising a world-class facility, led the design development for the club's 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art team headquarters which opened to rave reviews in August 2006. Located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium, One Buccaneer Place is one of the finest training facilities in the National Football League. The signature of the site is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have recorded 148 regular-season wins and five playoff wins. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years from 1999-2002. In addition, the Buccaneers' have seen seven playoff appearances since 1997. Prior to the Glazers' arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-94.

Following the purchase of the team in 1995, Glazer directed his attention on vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office and recruiting talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Joel worked tirelessly alongside Bryan to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drew from their experiences as fans, and ultimately shaped every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." The signature element – Buccaneer Cove – features a 103-foot replica pirate ship that fires cannons to celebrate Buccaneers touchdowns. Upon its opening, Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never seen before in modern stadiums, and it continues to provide an exciting, innovative gameday experience to this day. In 2014, the stadium concourses received a $7 million comprehensive overhaul, featuring 14 all-new concession locations and four additional beverage stands to provide fans with fresh, new food offerings, designed to tie into the team's Tampa-area roots.

Throughout the construction of Raymond James Stadium, Glazer created the sales and marketing efforts that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate Pewter Partners sponsorship program, Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

In March of 2014, the Glazers unveiled exciting changes to the franchise, introducing an updated logo, color scheme and uniform design, which were the result of several years of development and collaboration with Nike and NFL Properties. The enhanced logo – which features an enlarged flag and more menacing skull design – honors the Buccaneers' rich tradition while boldly bringing the team into the future through a modern industrial aesthetic. Along with hand-painted shading and chrome facemasks on the helmet, the new uniform features a bold look with custom name and number fonts. The team's colors were also energized with a richer shade of pewter juxtaposed with a brighter, more vibrant shade of red, as well as more prominently featuring "Bay Orange" as a primary trim and accent color.

Glazer represents the team at all NFL Owners Meetings, addressing the media with a "state of the franchise" address. He played an integral role at the 2005 Spring Meetings to help Tampa Bay land the 2009 Super Bowl. The Bay Area won the bid for Super Bowl XLIII, marking the fourth Super Bowl for Tampa Bay.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to helping children in the Bay area through charity initiatives. The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum, the Glazer Children's Museum, in downtown Tampa, which opened in 2010 and was recently named one of the Top Ten Family Museums in the country by Women's Day Magazine. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, The Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in 2011. In addition to his community efforts, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee. Glazer currently sits on the NFL International, NFL Finance and NFL Stadium committees.

In 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazers in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay Area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013) as well as the 2008 Champions League title. His work with the club led to his naming as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by the Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native is married to Angela, and the couple has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION, CO-PRESIDENT

Entering his 21st season with Tampa Bay in 2015, Co-Chairman Edward Glazer oversees many aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations.

Recognizing that the fans are of the utmost importance to the team's success, Glazer sets the tone for Tampa Bay's commitment to its fan base. Recently, Glazer oversaw a complete overhaul of the team's marketing and sales departments, including the launch of a new Member Relations Department created exclusively for Buccaneers Season Pass Members. The new department, which offers an array o¬f off-the-field benefits and unparalleled customer service, has been a huge success as JD Powers ranked the Buccaneers No. 1 in customer satisfaction among all NFL teams for two out of the past three seasons.

Glazer scrutinizes every detail of the business operations at One Buccaneer Place to ensure that fans are getting the best possible Buccaneers experience and value. In an effort to make season pass membership even more accessible to fans, Glazer introduced the league's first 12-month interest-free payment plan as well as a reduced price $15 youth ticket.

Glazer ensures the team is always focused on forward-thinking initiatives aimed at improving the game day experience. From making sure Raymond James Stadium was one of the first NFL Stadiums to offer Wi-Fi, to being the first NFL stadium to accept Apple Pay at all concession stands, to being one of the first NFL teams to offer its latest news on the Apple watch, Glazer is always bolstering the team's online and social media capabilities. The Buccaneers have also built a strong social media presence to connect with fans, utilizing Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. Glazer is focused on enhancing the experience of being a Buccaneers fan, down to the most critical details.

Understanding that game day is the biggest day for all Buccaneer fans, Glazer oversaw a $7 million renovation of the Raymond James Stadium general concourse concession stands in 2014 that ensured Buccaneers fans enjoy some of the highest quality and freshest foods available at any NFL Stadium.

Glazer unveiled more exciting changes for the franchise in 2014 when the first change in the Buccaneers' uniforms in 17 years was unveiled. Glazer worked closely with Nike and NFL Properties to create this bold all-new look. The enhanced logo – which features an enlarged flag and more menacing skull design – honors the Buccaneers' rich tradition while boldly bringing the team into the future through a modern industrial aesthetic. The new uniform features a bold look with custom name and number fonts as well as the first chrome facemasks on an NFL helmet. The team's colors were also energized with a richer shade of pewter juxtaposed with a brighter, more vibrant shade of red, as well as more prominently featuring "Bay Orange" as a primary trim and accent color.

In addition to his passion for innovation, Glazer also treasures the Buccaneers' past. He spearheaded a massive project to digitally archive the entire photographic history of the franchise, which included the organization, captioning, rating and uploading of more than 100,000 images-- ensuring that the team's entire history, dating back to its inaugural 1976 season, were preserved.

The Glazer family has been devoted to building a winning team from their earliest days as owners. Under the Glazers, Tampa Bay has enjoyed its most successful stretch as a franchise, posting seven playoff appearances with four division championships in addition to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII, a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in San Diego on January 26, 2003.

With another Super Bowl victory as the ultimate goal, the Glazers have made bold, educated moves to assemble a winning franchise.

In 2014, Glazer, along with fellow Co-Chairmen Bryan and Joel Glazer, secured Lovie Smith as the Buccaneers' 10th head coach and paired him with Jason Licht as the team's new general manager. It was a homecoming for Smith, whose first NFL coaching position was tutoring linebackers as a member of Tony Dungy's Tampa Bay staff from 1996-2000, and the choice was roundly lauded in NFL circles. Smith brings stability and a wealth of experience to the Buccaneers, taking the reins following nine years (2004-12) as head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XLI, as well as being named AP and PFW/PFWA Coach of the Year in 2005. Securing Smith for the Buccaneers highlighted the Glazer family's enduring commitment to bringing excellence to the Bay Area.

With steady leadership at the helm, Glazer and his brothers have also been devoted to ensuring the team has the best talent on the field, through both free agent signings such as Vincent Jackson and Alterraun Verner as well as homegrown drafted talent such as Gerald McCoy, Lavonte David, Mike Evans and this year's top overall selection Jameis Winston.

Away from the football field, Glazer is also heavily involved in charitable endeavors. He is Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation and helps oversee Foundation programs that provide incredible opportunities to Bay Area residents. In its 15 years of existence, the Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions.

In 2010, The Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa. This was made possible with the family's $5 million gift toward the construction of the facility, which opened to rave reviews, earning recognition by Women's Day Magazine as one of the Top 10 family museums in the country. For its wide-reaching efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree in 2011.

In 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazers in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay Area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

Glazer and his wife, Shari, are committed to providing aid and assistance in the community, supporting many causes, including the Zimmer Children's Museum, UCLA Jonsson Cancer Center Foundation, Cedars-Sinai Hospital, and the UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital.

In addition to his duties with Tampa Bay, Glazer serves on the board of the family-owned Manchester United Soccer Club – the world's most popular team with over 660 million fans worldwide. The club has won the Premier League title in five of the last eight seasons and has also been in three Champions League final matches, taking home the 2008 Champions League title. Glazer is also Owner and Chairman of US Property Trust, his holding company for real estate investments across the US.

Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and is a proud alumnus of Ithaca College, which recently opened the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena. Glazer and his wife Shari have been married 20 years.

DARCIE GLAZER KASSEWITZ
GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION, CO-PRESIDENT

Darcie Glazer Kassewitz, Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation, has worked tirelessly during her family's ownership of the team to ensure that the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' value to the community extends well beyond the playing field. She is a key asset in developing the Foundation's forward-thinking community efforts.

Established in 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes focusing on children and families in the West Central Florida region. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated millions of dollars in support of this cause.

The Glazer Family Foundation's Vision Program was an initiative starting in 2006 to provide schoolchildren with an opportunity to have vision problems identified in school at an early age. To date, the Foundation has donated vision screening equipment to eight counties in West Central Florida. The Vision Mobile, a fun, interactive mobile eye clinic spearheaded by Kassewitz in 2009, provides the final step in vision services to correct these students' inability to see clearly by providing free eye exams and prescription eyeglasses to children at Title One schools. Since 2009, the Vision Mobile has provided more than 10,000 eye screenings and more than 5,000 pairs of eye glasses to disadvantaged children.

To start every home Tampa Bay Buccaneers game, Kassewitz meets with children from local community groups on the field prior to kickoff as part of the Foundation's Gameday For Kids program. To date, the Foundation has hosted more than 14,000 youth at Raymond James Stadium who come from organizations throughout the Bay area. Participating kids are rewarded for academic achievement and positive behavior with complimentary game tickets, food vouchers and battle flags. The youth receive this privilege based on achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by community agencies.

Through a lead gift, the Glazer Family Foundation is proud to have brought the world-class Glazer Children's Museum to Tampa as part of their ongoing dedication to children and families. A new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders, the Children's Museum opened on September 25th, 2010. This one-of-a-kind museum instantly became the featured destination for children and families in Tampa Bay, providing 53,000-square feet of space for safe and playful learning.

On the football side, Kassewitz has used her creative expertise to help shape the Buccaneers' world-class facilities. Kassewitz set out to design a football stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. She ultimately shaped every detail of the interior of Raymond James Stadium, including the design of the expansive club levels, luxury suites and the Lower Galley restaurant. A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL."

Tampa Bay's training facility, which opened to high praise from across the National Football League in August 2006, is a technological marvel and sets a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL. Kassewitz oversaw the entire interior design process for the team's 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, which encompasses the daily functions for all of the Buccaneers' football and business operations.

One of the signatures of the training facility is the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Museum, which was designed and produced by Kassewitz. The museum brings the Buccaneers' history to life, including in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise. Featured displays explore the creation of the team's uniform and logo, a description of Buccaneers head coaches since the team's inception in 1976, and the organization's move to Raymond James Stadium and One Buccaneer Place. Additional exhibits explain the history of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders, the establishment of the Glazer Family Foundation, and the continual efforts by Buccaneers players to make an impact in the community. Included are features dedicated to the Buccaneers' Super Bowl victory, including special exhibits showcasing the Lombardi Trophy and Super Bowl ring earned in Super Bowl XXXVII.

The lobby also includes the spectacular Moment of Victory sculpture exhibit, which depicts the moment when the Buccaneers were assured of their first World Championship and commemorates Tampa Bay's victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXVII. Kassewitz not only came up with the concept for the sculptures, but oversaw the design and creation of this one-of-a-kind exhibit.

In the fall of 2013, Kassewitz launched the Buccaneers Academies, a commitment to generations of youth in the Bay area aimed to inspire, equip, and celebrate students. Serving over 12,000 youth in Hillsborough County, these 21 schools are provided with incentive-based programs and monthly challenges that provide fun, engaging, and motivating opportunities to learn. At the completion of fifth grade, every Buccaneers Academies graduating student receive their very own Ticket to the Future, the commitment from the Buccaneers organization to grant that student a job interview upon their graduation from college. Each Buccaneers Academy also receives a Fitness Zone, a Buccaneers themed covered court to promote active and safe outdoor play.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Glazer Family Foundation, she has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation in Palm Beach. Kassewitz also serves on the Board of Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured six titles since the Glazer family took over the club: five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kassewitz graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

FOUNDATION

REMEMBERING MALCOLM GLAZER

AS OWNER OF THE BUCCANEERS, HE REINVENTED A FRANCHISE AND REINVIGORATED A COMMUNITY.

The path that brought Malcolm Glazer to purchase the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 originated in his father's watch-parts business in Rochester, N.Y., where the younger Glazer started working when he was 15. It is no surprise then, that upon taking over the Buccaneers, he wanted to know exactly what made the organization tick.

Malcolm Glazer passed away on May 28, 2014 at the age of 85. During his nearly two decades as owner and president of the Buccaneers, virtually every facet of the team was closely examined and, where necessary, rebuilt. The result was a stunning turnaround for what had been one of the NFL's long-struggling franchises.

Glazer inherited a team with a .300 winning percentage during its first 19 years of existence, one with just two division titles, a single playoff win and, of course, no championship trophies. In just two years, with a new coach on the sideline and bold new uniforms on the players, a 16-year playoff drought was over. The team would move into a gorgeous new stadium the following year, and win a division title and advance to the conference championship game the year after that. By January 2003, Glazer was triumphantly holding the Lombardi Trophy over his head, grinning from ear to ear while surrounded by a team that had just defeated the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Positive changes continued without interruption. The Buccaneers moved into a new state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters in 2006, the most advanced NFL home in the league. They won three division titles in a seven-year span. In 1997, they started a string of consecutive game sellouts at Raymond James Stadium that would last a dozen years, an unprecedented run in franchise history. Glazer also landed Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa, the third and fourth to be played in the city. Through it all, community outreach and customer service became central organizational goals.

But Glazer's desire to understand the Buccaneers' inner gears – and have them work with maximum efficiency – went beyond new buildings and organizational charts. He was keenly interested in the people of the organization as well. He took great pleasure in greeting each player in the locker room with a handshake before and after games. He fostered a family atmosphere at team headquarters, according to a source no less credible than Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks. Brooks was one of many long-time Buccaneers who considered Mr. Glazer not just the team's owner but a personal friend.

"I'm proud to say – and I'm glad – that he's the only owner I ever played for," said Brooks, who was a first-round draft pick in 1995, the same year Glazer arrived.

Despite the team's decade-and-a-half of struggles, Glazer immediately realized that a passionate fan base existed. The area's obsession with the Buccaneers was ready to be rekindled if the team could show an unwavering commitment to winning.

Glazer and his family did exactly that, and they did it by being pioneers in the industry, creating innovative solutions for issues at all levels of the organization. They also did it by aggressively pursuing the right people to lead the team, and then providing them with the assets they needed to succeed.

And while Glazer restored the community's belief in its team, he also reached out to those who needed help within that community. This was of such importance to him that in 1999 he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has since donated millions and reached countless thousands in need. A new stadium and a striking new team facility now grace the region's skyline, but a third building in downtown Tampa is just as much a part of Malcolm Glazer's legacy: The Glazer Children's Museum, which opened its doors in 2010.

Malcolm Glazer left behind his wife, Linda, in addition to six children and 14 grandchildren. His children will continue to own and operate the franchise as they have throughout the family's ownership. They will do so by following the blueprint of a visionary man and a caring leader, a man who gave the franchise a new era of enormous success by caring about how the little details worked.

JASON LICHT
GENERAL MANAGER

General Manager Jason Licht was named the fifth general manager in franchise history on January 21, 2014. Licht (pronounced LIGHT) brings nearly two decades of scouting and player personnel experience with five organizations to the Buccaneers' front office. In 19 NFL seasons, including one as a coach, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed a 166-138 (.546) record, nine playoff appearances, eight division championships, four conference championships and one Super Bowl title.

Licht joined the Buccaneers in 2014, on the heels of two seasons with Arizona as the vice president of player personnel. His first draft pick with Tampa Bay, wide receiver Mike Evans, was selected seventh overall in the 2014 NFL Draft and went on to have a stellar rookie season, finishing with 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns and being named to the PFWA, NFL.com, ESPN.com and SI.com All-Rookie Teams.

Licht first worked for the Cardinals in 2008 as a personnel executive, before leaving to spend three seasons as director of pro personnel with New England. He returned to Arizona in 2012 as director of player personnel before being promoted to the vice president position.

In addition, Licht's career has intersected with some of the NFL's greatest head coaches, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Belichick and Andy Reid. In all, Licht has worked alongside six head coaches who have led a team to a Super Bowl (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Pete Carroll, Ken Whisenhunt) and six who have won AP Coach of the Year honors in their careers (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Dom Capers, Bruce Arians).

While with Arizona, Licht worked directly with the head coach and general manager on player acquisition and contract negotiations, as well as leading the club's scouting efforts as he oversaw both the college and pro scouting departments. The 2013 season saw the Cardinals improve to 10-6 from a 5-11 campaign the previous year.

Licht first worked with the Cardinals as a personnel executive in 2008 when Arizona won the NFC West and advanced to the Super Bowl. He then spent three seasons (2009-11) as director of pro personnel with the New England Patriots, where he was responsible for monitoring every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining depth on New England's roster. The Patriots were AFC East champions in each of those three seasons and advanced to the Super Bowl following the 2011 campaign.

Licht spent five years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-07), first serving as the club's assistant director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president of player personnel for his final two seasons. The team won three NFC East titles during that span and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Licht enjoyed his first stint in New England, serving as a scout and assistant director of player personnel from 1999-2002, a stretch that included a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. He was part of a front office that drafted core pieces of the three-time Super Bowl champions, such as Damien Woody, Kevin Faulk, Tom Brady, Richard Seymour, Matt Light, and Deion Branch.

Licht began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 1995, where he worked as a scouting department assistant before spending the 1996 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting, a college football scouting service, before joining the Carolina Panthers' scouting staff in 1998.

Licht played linebacker and guard at the University of Nebraska from 1989-91 before transferring to Nebraska-Wesleyan, where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He and his wife, Blair, have three children: Charlie, Zoe and Theo.

LOVIE SMITH
HEAD COACH

Named the 10th head coach in franchise history on January 2, 2014, Lovie Smith enters his second season at the helm of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his first year with the Buccaneers, Smith oversaw a roster overhaul, with 22 new players on the opening day roster, including 10 new starters. All told, new Buccaneers combined for 370 games played, and 162 starts – with rookies and first-year players accounting for 133 games played and 34 starts, en route to a 2-14 finish.

One of the key rookies that shined in Smith's first season was wide receiver Mike Evans, who had a record-setting campaign. Evans caught 12 touchdown passes, the most ever by a Buccaneers player and tied for the third-most by a rookie since the 1970 merger. He also recorded the second-most receptions (68) and receiving yards (1,051) by a rookie in team history and his three 100-yard receiving games were the most ever by a Buccaneers rookie.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Buccaneers saw steady improvement. Following the team's Week 7 bye, the Bucs ranked in the top half of the league in points allowed per game, while tying for the 11th-fewest touchdown passes (13) allowed and tying for the 11th-most interceptions (11) during that span. On the year, the Buccaneers' run defense held opponents to 3.89 yards per carry, the seventh-lowest total in the league, and the team tallied 60 run stuffs, the most in the NFL.

Individually, defensive tackle Gerald McCoy earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth after posting 8.5 sacks, despite being limited to 13 games and missing the majority of two others due to injury. Linebacker Lavonte David recorded his third consecutive year leading the team in tackles, establishing a new career high with 146. It was David's third-straight season with at least 100 solo tackles, the longest active streak in the NFL. He also had a career-high four forced fumbles, tied for the third-most in the league.

Smith joined the Buccaneers after having spent nine seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led Chicago to an 81-63 (.563) regular season record, while going 3-3 in the postseason. He led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and the 2006 NFC title, which propelled Chicago to its first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years. Smith is in his second stint with Tampa Bay, with his first NFL coaching job coming as a member of former head coach Tony Dungy's staff (1996-2000).

Under Smith's guidance, the Chicago defense led the NFL in takeaways (310), three-and-out drives forced (485), three-and-out drive percentage (26.4%), third down percentage (34.1%) and red zone scoring efficiency (79.3%). Chicago ranked second in the league in opponent yards per pass attempt (6.52) and red zone takeaways (37), third in opponent passer rating (76.0), fourth in scoring defense (19.2 points per game) and seventh in rushing average (4.0).

The Bears defense was one of the best in the NFL at turning their turnovers into points, returning 34 of their 310 takeaways for touchdowns, including 26 interceptions returned for scores, tied for the most in the NFL during that time.

Chicago's 303 total touchdowns allowed during Smith's tenure were the third-fewest in the NFL. The Bears gave up the fewest points in the NFC during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, including leading the league in Smith's second season.

While the team was known for its defensive successes, Chicago also had some of its best offensive performances under Smith. The 2006 Bears scored 427 points, the third-most in franchise history. In 2009, QB Jay Cutler set franchise records for completions and attempts, while recording the second-most passing yards in team history. Cutler became the first quarterback in franchise history to post consecutive 3,000-yard seasons, while also becoming the first Bears QB to have back-to-back seasons with at least 20 touchdown passes. In the same season, RB Matt Forte became just the second player in franchise history (along with Walter Payton) to have 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. Forte became the first player in NFL history with at least 900 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards in each of his first four seasons. In Smith's final season as head coach, the team had a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver for the second time in franchise history – including WR Brandon Marshall's franchise records for receptions (118) and receiving yards (1,508).

Chicago found consistency under the even-keeled hand of Smith's direction, fashioning four double-digit win seasons, five winning seasons and six seasons with a record of .500 or better. The Bears had a regular season home record of 45-27 (.625) from 2004-12 while going 36-36 (.500) on the road during that time. The Bears won five or more games at home seven times in a single year during Smith's tenure. Chicago was 5-3 at home from 2009-12, 6-2 in 2006 and 2008 and 7-1 in the Windy City during 2005. Chicago was 7-1 on the road in 2006, tied with 1985 and 1986 for the team's best single-season road record since the inception of the 16-game schedule. The Bears were 8-16 (.333) on the road in the three years prior to Smith's arrival. By leading Chicago to records of 11-5 in 2005 and 2010 and 13-3 in 2006, Smith guided the Bears to three of their top eight seasons in terms of regular season victories during the era of the 16-game schedule.

Smith returned Chicago to its preferred place as a power in the NFC North, fashioning a divisional record of 32-22 (.593) during his time with the Bears including three division titles (2005, 2006 and 2010). Smith led Chicago to 5-1 intra-divisional records in each of the 2005, 2006 and 2010 campaigns, defeating all three opponents at least once in each of those seasons, a feat last accomplished by the Bears in 1991. Chicago began the 2006 season with three consecutive wins over divisional opponents for the first time in team history. The Bears also won their first 11 games against NFC opponents in 2006 en route to the second-best intra-conference mark in franchise history.

Registering a career-high 13 wins in 2006, Smith led Chicago to home-field advantage in the NFC Playoffs and the team's first NFC Championship since its Super Bowl season of 1985. That gave Chicago 24 regular season wins since 2005, the fourth-highest two-season win total in the 87-season history of the franchise. Smith guided the team to wins in its first seven contests in 2006 to register the fourth-best start to a season in team history while allowing the Bears to join Green Bay and Minnesota as the only teams in NFL history to begin four different seasons with 7-0 records. Chicago's seven consecutive wins to start the season allowed Smith to record the league's third-longest win streak for the second consecutive season. With division titles in 2005 and 2006, Smith joined Ditka as the only coaches in team history to lead the team to consecutive division titles. He was the first coach in team history to lead the Bears to the playoffs in two of his first three seasons.

Smith was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year for 2005 after leading the Bears to a division title in the shortest amount of time in team history, doing so in his second campaign while setting a franchise record for victories by a sophomore head coach with an 11-5 record. Smith - who won with 24.5 of 50 possible votes - was the fourth head coach in team history to win the award after team founder George S. Halas in 1963 and 1965, Mike Ditka in 1985 and 1988 and Dick Jauron in 2001. Just the third coach in team history to lead the organization to the playoffs in his second season, Smith guided the Bears to their first-ever NFC North division title in 2005. En route to the team's division championship that season, the Bears completed their first season sweep of Green Bay since 1991, a feat they repeated in 2007.

Winning just one of their first four games to start the 2005 campaign, Smith rallied the Bears to become just the 20th NFL team to qualify for the postseason after beginning the season 1-3 since the current 12-team playoff system was instituted in 1990. The Bears turned their season around as Smith guided the team to eight consecutive mid-season wins, the third-longest win streak in the NFL in 2005 and the longest by Chicago since the 1985 Super Bowl championship team won 12 straight to begin the season. In guiding the team to the No. 2 seed in the NFC Playoffs, Smith led a worst-to-first revival in the NFC North division as the Bears' six-win improvement from the previous season was tied for the biggest in the NFL in 2005.

The Bears posted a 5-11 record in 2004 during Smith's first season as head coach as he presided over the youngest team in the NFL while battling through a spate of injuries that robbed the team of the services of several of its most productive players.

Smith came to Chicago with the reputation for being proficient at instituting positive change after he engineered a dramatic turnaround as the defensive coordinator of the Rams from 2001 through 2003. Known for his acumen in teaching and motivating young talent, Smith took on the added responsibility of assistant head coach with the Rams prior to the 2003 season. In Smith's first season as an NFL defensive coordinator with St. Louis in 2001, Smith helped the Rams return to the Super Bowl after missing the playoffs the previous season as his defense allowed fewer points and total yards per game than the previous year. Smith coached on playoff teams in four of his last five campaigns as an assistant and has done so in eight of his 17 NFL seasons overall.

From 2001-03, the Rams ranked third in the NFL in takeaways and fumble recoveries, tied for sixth in sacks, and tied for eighth in interceptions. Smith helped steward St. Louis to shutouts in both 2001 and 2003, the first white-washings by the Rams organization since 1994. St. Louis won 33 games during Smith's tenure with the team, the third-most in the NFL during that time behind Green Bay and Philadelphia. He capped his stint in St. Louis by orchestrating a unit that ranked among the league leaders in takeaways, defensive touchdowns, and sacks in 2003. In that year, St. Louis led the NFL with 46 takeaways while tying for fourth with 24 interceptions and leading the NFL with 22 fumble recoveries. That season's takeaway total is tied with the 1999 Eagles and 2011 Pittsburgh Steelers for the third-highest single-season total in the NFL since 1993. St. Louis ranked fourth in the NFL by scoring five defensive touchdowns in 2003 and also posted the fourth-most sacks in the NFL. In 2002, the Rams defense finished tied for fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL in fewest touchdowns allowed while ranking sixth in the NFC and eighth in the NFL in third-down efficiency.

Smith guided St. Louis to a defensive resurgence upon taking over in 2001. Inheriting a defense coming off a season in which it ranked 23rd in the NFL in total defense while allowing over 29 points per game, Smith improved the unit to third in the NFL in total defense while permitting only 17.0 points per game. The St. Louis defense made one-year leaps to third from 13th in the NFL in run defense and 10th from 27th in pass defense while improving to a conference-high 14 wins from 10 in 2000. The Rams scored five defensive touchdowns in 2001 while starting seven new players on defense, including two rookies.

Preceding his success in St. Louis, Smith contributed to the revival of Tampa Bay's defense as the Buccaneers linebacker coach from 1996-2000. Tampa's defense hadn't ranked above 20th in the NFL in the four seasons prior to Smith's arrival under head coach Tony Dungy, but had ranks of 11th in 1996, third in 1997, second in 1998, third in 1999, and ninth in 2000. During the five seasons with Smith on the Bucs staff, the team allowed less than 300 points each year while permitting an average of 16.9 points and 258.8 yards per game.

Smith's tutelage has brought out the best in his players throughout his career. As linebackers coach at Tampa Bay, Smith helped Derrick Brooks develop into a perennial Pro Bowl selection and one of the NFL's all-time greatest linebackers. Brooks made the first Pro Bowl of his team-record 11 career Pro Bowl appearances in his second season – Smith's first season as his position coach. Also in 1996, Smith helped Hardy Nickerson earn his second career Pro Bowl nod. Brooks and Nickerson made a combined eight all-star appearances under Smith.

Overall, Smith has spent 30 years in coaching at the collegiate and professional levels. He began his coaching career at his hometown high school, Big Sandy High School (Texas), in 1980 before moving to Cascia Hall Prep in Tulsa, Okla. the following year. Two years later, Smith made the jump to the college ranks at his alma mater, Tulsa, as linebackers coach, where he stayed through 1986. Smith moved on to coach linebackers at Wisconsin (1987), Arizona State (1988-91), and Kentucky (1992). Smith was the defensive backs coach at Tennessee (1993-94) and Ohio State (1995).

A native of Big Sandy, Texas, Smith led the Big Sandy Wildcats to three consecutive state championships in high school and was all-state three years as an end and linebacker. Smith was a two-time All-America and three-time All-Missouri Conference defensive back at the University of Tulsa.

Lovie and his wife, MaryAnne, are the proud parents of three sons: Mikal, married to Kristen; Matthew, married to Kathleen; and Miles.

Lovie is very active in charity work as he and his wife have started the Lovie and MaryAnne Smith Foundation (LAMAS) which helps worthy young people further their education, with the simple motto, "We start it - You finish it."

LESLIE FRAZIER
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Leslie Frazier begins his second season as defensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.

In 2014, Frazier oversaw a Buccaneers defense that improved throughout the season. In the final 10 weeks of the season (following the team's Week 7 bye), Tampa Bay ranked 14th in points allowed per game, net yards allowed per game and opponent passer rating and 17th in net passing yards allowed per game after ranking 32nd in each category during the first six weeks of the season. During that span, the team ranked 11th in touchdown passes allowed during that span, after ranking 29th in the first six weeks, while the placing 13th in sack rate and 17th in rushing yards allowed per game, after ranking 25th during the season's first six weeks.

Tampa Bay had a revitalized pass rush in 2014, finishing the year with 36 sacks, tied for the most by a Buccaneers defense since recording 45 in 2004. Leading the pass rush was defensive tackle Gerald McCoy, whose 8.5 sacks were a team high and helped McCoy earn his third consecutive Pro Bowl selection, as well as second-team All-Pro honors. The Buccaneers also recorded 14 forced fumbles in 2014, the most that the team has tallied since 2007, when it registered 24.

Frazier, entering his 17th season as an NFL coach, came to the Buccaneers after spending three full seasons (2011-13) as the Minnesota Vikings' head coach. In 2012, Frazier set a Vikings record by improving the team's win total by seven victories and earning a Wild Card berth. Frazier originally joined Minnesota in 2007 as defensive coordinator, before adding assistant head coach duties (2008-10) and his eventual promotion to interim head coach for the final six games of the 2010 season. While working as defensive coordinator, Frazier's units finished in the top 10 three times (sixth in 2008 and 2009, eighth in 2010).

During Frazier's seven seasons, the Vikings pass rush flourished, recording the most sacks in the NFL (297) and the second-most forced fumbles (114) during that span. In 2009, the team posted an NFL-best 48 sacks. While in Minnesota, Frazier played a key role in the development of defensive end Jared Allen, who posted an NFL-leading 85.5 sacks with the Vikings from 2008-13.

The Vikings run defense stacked up as one of the league's best under Frazier, allowing only 94.8 rushing yards per game – the second-lowest total in the NFL during that seven year span – including 2007 (74.1 ypg) and 2008 (76.9 ypg), when it was the No.1 run defense in the league. Frazier also played a role in the development of Pro Bowl and All-Pro defensive tackles Kevin and Pat Williams, both key anchors to Minnesota's stout run defense.

Prior to joining Minnesota, Frazier worked in Indianapolis, as a defensive assistant (2005) and assistant to the head coach/defensive backs coach (2006), helping lead the 2006 Super Bowl Championship team. Under his tutelage, safety Bob Sanders became the first Colts defensive back to earn a Pro Bowl selection since 1971. Frazier helped the Colts defense to an 11th overall ranking in 2005, after having ranked 29th in yards per game in 2004.

Frazier came to Indianapolis from the Cincinnati Bengals, where he served as defensive coordinator from 2003-04. He entered the NFL in 1999 as the Philadelphia Eagles defensive backs coach, a position he held for four seasons. During his time with the Eagles, he helped cornerback Troy Vincent earn four Pro Bowl berths, while safety Brian Dawkins earned three trips. In his final three seasons with the team, Philadelphia advanced to the playoffs each year, including back-to-back NFC Championship Game appearances.

Frazier spent 11 seasons as a collegiate coach before entering the NFL, getting his coaching start as the inaugural head coach at Trinity International University, a position he held from 1988-96. Taking over the new program, he helped lead the team to two Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles. The school later named the football field in his honor. Following his stint as head coach at Trinity, Frazier spent two seasons (1997-98) as the defensive backs coach at the University of Illinois.

An All-American defensive back at Alcorn State, Frazier played six seasons for the Chicago Bears (1981-86), including starting on the 1985 Super Bowl championship team and leading the team in interceptions three consecutive seasons (1983-85). He and his wife, Gale, have three children: Kieron, Chantel and Corey.

Dirk Koetter begins his first season as offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.

Koetter joins Tampa Bay after three seasons working as the offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2012-14). During Koetter's three seasons with Atlanta, the team cumulatively ranked second in the NFL in completion percentage (67.4), third in third-down conversion percentage (44.1), fourth in passing yards (277.2 per game), ninth in passing touchdowns (86), ninth in passer rating (93.9), 10th in points (24.0 per game) and 10th in total yardage (363.5 per game), while posting the second-fewest penalties (243) and penalty yards (2,043), seventh-fewest turnovers (69) and the ninth-lowest interception percentage (2.4) in the league. Koetter was part of the Falcons staff that went 13-3 in 2012 and played in the NFC Championship Game.

Under Koetter, Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan posted the three highest passing yardage seasons in franchise history, as well as three of the four highest completion percentage seasons. In 2012, Ryan set franchise records and personal bests in passing yards (4,719), completion percentage (68.6) and passing touchdowns (32), while recording the second-highest passer rating mark in Falcons history (99.1). Atlanta wide receivers also flourished under Koetter, with Julio Jones setting a franchise record and ranking third in the NFL in receiving yards in 2014 with 1,593 yards. In the past three seasons, the Falcons had a different player lead the team in receiving yards each season (Roddy White, 2012; Harry Douglas, 2013; Jones, 2014).

While Koetter was in charge of the Falcons' offense, he coached three players to Pro Bowl appearances (Julio Jones, 2012, 2014; Tony Gonzalez, 2012-13, Matt Ryan, 2012, 2014), with Gonzalez earning first-team All-Pro honors in 2012. In his first season with Koetter in 2012, Gonzalez set a franchise record for receiving yards by a tight end, recording 93 catches for 930 yards, the most he had recorded in either category since 2008. That same season, Jones and White combined for 2,549 receiving yards, the most by a duo in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Koetter spent five seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-11). In his five years with the Jaguars, the team cumulatively ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards (132.0 per game) and sixth in rushing average (4.41). Koetter's Jacksonville offenses also showed a penchant for taking care of the football, tallying the seventh-fewest turnovers in the league during that time.

Koetter had immediate success in Jacksonville, with his 2007 team setting franchise records in points (25.7 per game, sixth in the NFL) and total offense (357 yards per game, seventh in the NFL). In his first season as the starter, quarterback David Garrard ranked third in the NFL and set a franchise record in passer rating (102.2), throwing a league-low three interceptions, while leading the team to a Wild Card playoff berth and a win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2008 Garrard threw for a career-best 3,620 yards and in 2010 he tossed 23 touchdowns, a career high and a franchise record.

While in Jacksonville, Koetter coached four different players to six Pro Bowl selections, including running back Maurice Jones-Drew, who earned three trips to the Pro Bowl and led the NFL in rushing in 2010 en route to earning an All-Pro selection. Koetter also helped tight end Marcedes Lewis earn a Pro Bowl berth following the 2010 season, when Lewis caught 10 touchdown passes, tied for the most in a season in Jaguars history.

Before joining the Jaguars, Koetter had spent 22 years at the collegiate level, most recently as the head coach at Arizona State (2001-06). In his six seasons with the Sun Devils, Koetter led the team to four bowl games, posting a 40-34 record. Working as both the head coach and offensive coordinator, he helped Arizona State average nearly 30 points per game over six seasons, while ranking in the top 20 in the nation in passing offense in five of his six years. In addition, five of the six Sun Devil teams during Koetter's tenure produced a 1,000-yard receiver and the quarterback threw for 20 or more touchdowns in five of six seasons.

Koetter got his first head coaching job at Boise State, where he spent three seasons (1998-2000), finishing with a 26-10 record and two consecutive bowl wins. He was a two-time Big West Coach of the Year and two-time conference champion.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Koetter played collegiately at Idaho State (1978-81), helping his team to a Division I-AA national championship as a senior. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a master's in athletic administration a year later. After getting his master's, he became the head coach at Highland (Idaho) High School, where he worked from 1983-84, going 19-4 and winning the 1984 state championship.

In 1985, Koetter worked as the offensive coordinator at San Francisco State before going to the University of Texas El-Paso, where he worked as the quarterbacks coach in 1986, before adding the duties of offensive coordinator in 1987-88. He then served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri from 1989-93 and offensive coordinator at Boston College (1994-95) and Oregon (1996-97).

Koetter, 56, and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kaylee and Kendra, and two sons, Derek and Davis.

KEVIN O'DEA
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Kevin O'Dea begins his second season as special teams coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2014, O'Dea oversaw a Buccaneers special teams unit that was one of the best in punt coverage in the league, allowing only 5.8 yards per punt return the second-lowest mark in the NFL, while forcing 26 fair catches, the fifth-most in the league. In addition, punter Michael Koenen recorded touchbacks on only two of his 79 punts, tied for the fewest among qualified punters (min. 32 punts). Another factor in Tampa Bay's punt coverage was wide receiver Russell Shepard, whose 14 solo special teams tackles tied for the league lead.

O'Dea also oversaw the development of rookie kicker Patrick Murray, who ended the season making his final 13 field goals, the longest active streak in the NFL and the fourth-longest in Buccaneers history. Murray also proved to be a weapon from long distance, connecting on five field goals of 50-or-more yards, tied for the second-most in a season in team history and tied for the fourth-most in the NFL in 2014. His 83.3 percent conversion rate (5-of-6) from 50 or more yards was the highest among 15 players with at least four attempts.

The Bucs also posted the top field goal block unit in the NFL, holding opponents to a 74% conversion rate (29-of-39), while blocking one field goal.

Entering his 21st NFL season, O'Dea has previously coached with the San Diego Chargers (Defensive/Special Teams Assistant 1994-95), Tampa Bay (Offensive/Defensive Assistant, 1996-2001), Detroit Lions (Special Teams Assistant 2002-03), Arizona Cardinals (Special Teams Coordinator 2004-05), Chicago Bears (Assistant Special Teams Coach 2006-07; 2011-12), New York Jets (Special Teams Coach 2008-09) and Kansas City Chiefs (Assistant Special Teams Coach 2013). O'Dea has also coached in the UFL (2010 Hartford Colonials Special Teams Coordinator) and in the collegiate ranks.

With Kansas City in 2013, O'Dea helped guide one of the top special teams units in the NFL, recording a league-leading four return touchdowns (two punt, two kick), including Dexter McCluster's two punt return touchdowns, the most in the NFL. O'Dea also helped punter Dustin Colquitt tie for the league lead in punts inside the 20-yard line, while allowing the fourth-lowest punt return average in the NFL.

During O'Dea's stints in Chicago, the Bears had one of the top special teams units in the NFL, including the 2007 team that recorded six return touchdowns (four punt, two kick), the most in a single season in NFL history. O'Dea also helped Devin Hester into one of the top return specialists in the NFL, earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro berths in 2006-07, when he recorded 12 return touchdowns (seven punt, four kick, one missed field goal), the most ever in consecutive seasons.

In addition to working with Hester, O'Dea has assisted in coaching several other special teams players to Pro Bowls: kick returner Dexter McCluster (Kansas City, 2013); special teamer Corey Graham (Chicago, 2011); kick returner Leon Washington (N.Y. Jets, 2008); special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo (Chicago, 2006-07); kicker Robbie Gould (Chicago, 2006); kicker Neil Rackers (Arizona, 2005); kicker Martin Gramatica (2000); punter Darren Bennett (San Diego 1995) and kicker John Carney (San Diego 1994).

Prior to joining the NFL, O'Dea spent eight years as a collegiate coach. He began his coaching career at his alma mater of Lock Haven University, where, when his playing career was cut short, he coached wide receivers (1986). Following his time with Lock Haven, O'Dea spent one season coaching freshman defensive backs at Cornell (1987) before working as a graduate assistant at Virginia (1989-90) and Penn State (1991), before being promoted to assistant strength and conditioning/defensive line/linebackers coach (1992-93).

A native of Williamsport, Pa., O'Dea spent four years in the Coast Guard (1979-83) before enrolling in Lock Haven, where he earned a fitness management degree and later obtained a master's degree in education from Virginia. O'Dea and his wife, Mary Anne, have two sons, Sean and Ryan.

Mike Bajakian begins his first season as quarterbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.

Bajakian (pronounced buh-JAKE-ee-an) comes to Tampa Bay from the University of Tennessee, where he has spent the past two seasons (2013-14) as the team's offensive coordinator. Bajakian was part of the coaching staff that helped the 2014 Volunteers earn the school's first bowl game appearance since 2010 and first bowl victory since 2007, winning the 2015 Taxslayer Bowl. Tennessee went 4-1 in the final five games of the season, behind sophomore quarterback Joshua Dobbs, who set a Tennessee single-game record for rushing yards by a quarterback in a win over South Carolina. In that same game, the team tied a school record with 35 first downs, en route to racking up 645 yards of offense, its most against an SEC opponent since 1997. During the team's 4-1 stretch to end the season, it averaged 37 points per game, including three games of at least 45 points. In his first season with Tennessee, the team rushed for 2,261 yards, its most since 2004.

Prior to joining the Volunteers, Bajakian worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the University of Cincinnati (2010-12). While with the Bearcats, quarterback Zach Collaros became only the second passer in school history to pass for 6,000 yards (6,278) and 50 touchdowns (51). Cincinnati won conference titles in each of the final two seasons that Bajakian coached there, with the 2012 team leading the Big East in scoring offense, rushing offense and yards per play. The 2011 team also led the Big East in rushing, producing the Conference Offensive Player of the Year in running back Isiah Pead. The 2010 squad led the Big East in scoring offense, total offense and passing offense.

From 2007-09, Bajakian worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Central Michigan, where he had previously worked as the quarterbacks coach (2002-03). In his three seasons as the Chippewas' offensive coordinator, the team posted its three highest-scoring offenses since joining the MAC in 1975 and his offenses set or broke more than 30 school records. Led by quarterback Dan LeFevour, who ended his career with 150 touchdowns – then an NCAA FBS-record – and Antonio Brown, who set season and career marks for total receptions and 1,000-yard seasons, the Chippewas won conference championships in 2007 and 2009. LeFevour, a two-time MAC Offensive Player of the year, finished his career with 15,853 yards of total offense, then the NCAA's second-highest career total.

Bajakian has previously worked in the NFL, working with the wide receivers as offensive quality control coach for three seasons (2004-06) under current Buccaneers Head Coach Lovie Smith. He was a member of the 2006 Chicago Bears team that won the NFC Championship and played in Super Bowl XLI.

In 1996, Bajakian got his start in coaching, spending two seasons (1996-97) as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator for Delbarton School (Morristown, New Jersey). He also coached at Rutgers (graduate assistant/defensive backs, 1998-99), Sacred Heart (quarterbacks coach, 2000) and Michigan (graduate assistant/quarterbacks, 2000-01), before his first stint with Central Michigan in 2002.

A native of River Vale, New Jersey, Bajakian was an All-New England Small College Athletic Conference and All-ECAC quarterback at Williams College. He and his wife, Michelene, have three children: Mary, Anna and Emma and are expecting their fourth child in August.

In 2014, Barry's unit paved the way for a 1,000-yard season by running back Thomas Rawls, a key cog in the Chippewas' offense who rushed for 1,103 yards and 10 touchdowns in only nine games. As tight ends coach, Barry headed a group that combined for 63 receptions for 644 yards and six touchdowns over 2012-13, while helping Central Michigan record another 1,000-yard rusher in Zurlon Tipton, who finished with 1,492 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2012.

DAVE BORGONZI
DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dave Borgonzi enters his fifth season in the NFL and his second with the Buccaneers, serving as the defensive quality control coach. He will be working primarily with the Buccaneers linebackers.

In his first season with the Buccaneers, Borgonzi assisted a defense that improved throughout the year, ranking 14th in points allowed per game and net yards allowed per game during the final 10 weeks of the season, after ranking 32nd in each category over the first six weeks, prior to the Buccaneers' Week 7 Bye.

Borgonzi joined Tampa Bay following three seasons as a coaching assistant for the Dallas Cowboys, working on the defensive side of the ball for his first two years (2011-12), before moving to offense in 2013. His primary duties included assisting in weekly breakdowns and scouting reports of each opponent, while also working with the scout team during daily practices. In 2013, Borgonzi assisted an offense that finished fifth in the NFL in total points scored.

Before joining the Cowboys in 2011, Borgonzi spent five years coaching in the college ranks at Harvard (2008-10) and Syracuse (2006-07).

Coaching at Harvard, Borgonzi served as the assistant defensive secondary coach and helped with the school's recruiting. In 2010, Harvard's defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense. GILL BYRD
CORNERBACKS COACH

Working with the Buccaneers cornerbacks in 2014, Byrd helped develop the members of the secondary, including starters Alterraun Verner and Johnthan Banks. Verner, in his first season with the team, proved to be well-rounded in both run and pass defense, recording 6.5 run stuffs, the most in the NFL by a corner, and 76 tackles, the fifth-most by a corner, while also contributing two interceptions. He ended the year as Pro Football Focus's seventh-highest rated cornerback, while posting the best run defense grade of any corner. Banks posted a career-high four interceptions, which led the team. Banks also posted his first career interception returned for a touchdown.

Byrd joined the Buccaneers after having spent seven seasons with the Chicago Bears. Byrd began his career with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach (2006), before becoming assistant defensive backs coach in 2007. He added safeties coach to his duties in 2008 and held the position until 2012. Byrd helped developed young safeties Chris Conte and Major Wright, who went from third-round draft selections to full-time starters under Byrd. In 2012, Wright started all 16 games and recorded career-highs in interceptions and passes defensed. In 2011, Conte was named to the PFW and PFWA All-Rookie Team.

Prior to his time in Chicago, Byrd coached in St. Louis, where he began his coaching career in 2003. His first two seasons were spent as the Rams defensive assistant before being promoted to assistant secondary coach for the 2005 campaign.

Byrd compiled a stand-out 10-year NFL career playing exclusively with the San Diego Chargers and retired after the 1993 season as the team's all-time leader in interceptions (42) and interception return yards (546), two records which he still owns. Chosen by the Chargers with the 22nd overall pick of the first round in the 1983 NFL Draft, Byrd led all NFL cornerbacks in interceptions for three consecutive seasons (1989-91) and paced the Chargers in four straight years (1988-91). Earning All- NFL honors from The Sporting News in 1989 and Football Digest in 1990, Byrd was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1991 and 1992 seasons. He spent the 1993 season on Injured Reserve with San Diego before retiring. Byrd was inducted into the Chargers Hall of Fame in 1998.

He returned to the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 1999, serving as the team's executive director/player programs and community affairs for three seasons (1999-2001). In that role, Byrd directed the family assistance program of the Packers' players along with guiding players in continuing education, financial education and career internships. He began his coaching career as a volunteer with the Rams in 2003 under then-defensive coordinator Lovie Smith.

Byrd graduated from San Jose State with a degree in finance. He and wife Marilyn have two sons: Gill II, who lettered three years as a defensive back and graduated with a degree in Hotel-Restaurant Tourism from New Mexico State, and Jairus, who lettered for three years at the University of Oregon and went on to become a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection with the Buffalo Bills whose 22 interceptions from 2009-13 were the second-most in the NFL.

JOE CULLEN
DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Joe Cullen begins his second season as defensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his first season with Tampa Bay, Cullen coached a defensive line group that tallied 33 sacks, tied for the fourth-most by any defensive line in the NFL. The Buccaneers defensive line accounted for 91.7 percent of the team's total sacks – the second-highest total in the league. The pass-rush was spearheaded by defensive tackle Gerald McCoy, who led the team with 8.5 sacks, tied for the third-most by a defensive tackle in the NFL, despite only playing in 13 games and missing parts of two others with injury.

Tampa Bay's defensive line also contributed to the team's run defense, which held opposing rushers to 3.9 yards per carry, the seventh-lowest mark in the NFL.

A veteran of eight NFL seasons, Joe Cullen has 24 years of coaching experience, including 17 on the collegiate level. Cullen spent the 2013 season as the defensive line coach for the Cleveland Browns.

Cullen was a part of one of the best defensive turnarounds in Cleveland history. After finishing 23rd in the league in 2012, the Browns ranked ninth in the league in total defense in 2013, marking the team's best finish since 1994. Cullen oversaw a stout defensive line, which helped limit opponents to an average of 3.9-yards per carry, which ranked eighth in the NFL and marked Cleveland's best total in 18 years. The Browns' defense also registered 40 sacks, their most since 2001.

Before joining the Browns, Cullen spent three seasons (2010-12) as the defensive line coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he helped develop defensive tackle Tyson Alualu, the 10th overall pick in 2010. Under Cullen, Alualu started all 48 games and led the club in sacks in 2012. In 2011, defensive end Jeremy Mincey recorded career-best totals with 101 tackles and a team-leading eight sacks and four forced fumbles. In 2011, the Jaguars ranked sixth in the NFL in yards allowed, improving from 28th the year before. The team also finished fifth in the league in yards per carry, improving from 28th the previous season.

Prior to the Jaguars, Cullen served as defensive line coach at Idaho State in 2009, after spending three seasons (2006-08) with the Detroit Lions as defensive line coach. In 2008, the Lions finished 10th in the NFL in sacks per pass attempt and finished in the top 10 in sacks in 2007 and 2008. He helped develop Cliff Avril who led all rookies in sacks (6) and forced fumbles (4) in 2008. Under Cullen, a number of players recorded career-best sack totals, including Shaun Rogers (7 in 2007), Jared DeVries (6.5 in 2007), Dewayne White (6.5 in 2007 and 2008) and Cory Redding (8 in 2006).

Before his stint at Idaho State, Cullen spent time at Illinois (2005), Indiana (2002-04), Memphis (2001) and Louisiana State (1999). During his final season at Indiana, he helped the Hoosiers defeat two ranked teams in the same season for the first time since 1989.

Cullen spent eight seasons (1992-98, 2000) at Richmond, including three as defensive coordinator. Jon Embree begins his second season as tight ends coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.

In 2014, Embree worked with rookie tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins. Despite being limited to nine games on the year, Seferian-Jenkins recorded 21 catches for 221 yards and two touchdowns. His 21 catches and 221 yards were the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie tight end, while his two touchdown receptions tied for the third-most.

Embree came to Tampa Bay after spending the 2013 season as the tight ends coach with Cleveland, during which Browns tight end Jordan Cameron earned a Pro Bowl berth and ranked second in the NFL in receiving yards by a tight end.

In his career, Embree has spent 17 years at the University of Colorado as a player and coach, including two seasons (2011-12) as the Buffaloes head coach. Prior to his stint as Colorado's head coach, he spent 11 seasons (1991, 1993-2002) as an assistant coach following a standout collegiate career, where he was a four-year letterman (1983-86). As an assistant coach, he worked in a myriad of roles, including overseeing the tight ends (1993-94, 1999-2000), defensive ends (1995-98) and wide receivers/kickers (2001-02). After serving as a volunteer assistant in 1991, Embree spent one season coaching at Douglas County High School before re-joining the Buffalos for the next 10 years.

He spent three seasons at UCLA, first as assistant head coach/wide receivers (2003) and then as assistant head coach/tight ends (2004-05). While with the Bruins, he helped shape tight end Marcedes Lewis who would win the 2005 John Mackey award, given to the nation's top tight end. That season, Lewis set school records for a tight end with 58 receptions and 10 touchdowns en route to being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Embree spent the next three seasons (2006-08) as the tight ends coach with the Kansas City Chiefs. Tony Gonzalez was selected to the Pro Bowl each season under Embree and led all NFL tight ends with 268 receptions and 3,130 receiving yards during that three-year span.

Embree spent one season (2010) coaching the tight ends with the Washington Redskins. That season, Chris Cooley finished second on the team with 77 receptions, while adding 849 yards with three touchdowns. Embree returned to Colorado as head coach following his stint in Washington.

Following his playing career with the Buffaloes, where he finished in the top five in school history in both career receptions (80) and yards (1,116), Embree was a sixth-round pick by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1987 NFL Draft. He played two seasons with the Rams before suffering a career-ending elbow injury in 1989, while with the Seattle Seahawks.

A native of Englewood, Colorado, Embree earned his degree in communications in 1987. He and his wife, Natalyn, have two sons, Taylor and Connor, and one daughter, Hannah. Jon's father, John, played two seasons (1969-70) as a wide receiver with the Denver Broncos.

Andrew Hayes-Stoker begins his second season as wide receivers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.

In 2014, Hayes-Stoker oversaw several record-breaking performances from Buccaneers wide receivers. Rookie wide receiver Mike Evans had a breakout season, recording 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 receiving touchdowns were a franchise record and tied for the fourth-most in the NFL last season, while tying for the third-most by a rookie since the 1970 NFL/AFL merger. Evans' 1,051 receiving yards were the second-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie and the ninth-most by a rookie since the merger. He is one of only 15 rookies to break the 1,000-yard receiving mark during that timeframe.

Across from the rookie Evans was veteran receiver Vincent Jackson, who finished the year with a team-best 70 receptions for 1,002 yards and two touchdowns. With their 2014 totals, Evans and Jackson became the first Buccaneers teammates to each have 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

Hayes-Stoker came to Tampa Bay after spending 2013 at Florida International as the running backs coach. Prior to joining Florida International, Hayes-Stoker spent seven seasons under Head Coach Lovie Smith at Chicago in various roles.

Hayes-Stoker began his NFL career with Chicago as a football operations assistant (2006-09). He later became the offensive quality control coach (2010-11) and the offensive assistant/wide receivers coach (2012).

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Hayes-Stoker began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M (2005-06). He also worked as a recruiter at his alma mater, Texas Christian University (2004-2005).

Hayes-Stoker played tailback at TCU (1999-2002), where he was a two-time team captain and earned All-American academic honors. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in education. Hayes-Stoker is a native of Arlington, Texas.

Working with the linebackers in 2014, Nickerson helped Danny Lansanah to a career year. In his first season as the primary starter, Lansanah recorded 79 tackles (third-most on the team) while adding three interceptions, two returned for touchdowns. He is one of only two linebackers in team history to have multiple interceptions for touchdowns in the same season. Lansanah also became the first player in Buccaneers history to start at all three linebacker positions in the same season.

In addition to working with Lansanah, Nickerson coached Lavonte David, who finished the season with the second-most solo tackles in the NFL (101) and the third-most total tackles (146), while also ranking third in forced fumbles (4) and seventh in tackles for loss (17).

Bradley McDougald started the final five games of the season, including at Carolina (12/14), where he recorded 15 tackles, tied for the most by any safety in the NFL last year and the most by a Buccaneers player since linebacker Lavonte David registered 16 at Oakland in 2012 (11/4/12). Dashon Goldson's 80 tackles were the second-most on the team, while Keith Tandy notched one interception on the year.

TIM SPENCER
RUNNING BACKS COACH

Dealing with an injury-plagued running backs group in 2014, Spencer managed to coax performances out of all three of the main runners. Doug Martin led the team in rushing, including two performances of 90+ rushing yards in the final three games of the season. Bobby Rainey showed his versatility, rushing 94 times while catching 33 passes, averaging 5.7 scrimmage yards per touch, the second-highest average by a running back. Charles Sims, who started the season on the Injured Reserve/Designated to Return list, saw his first game action in Week 10 and, over the final eight games of the year, racked up 190 receiving yards – the seventh-highest mark by a running back during that span.

Spencer served as running backs coach for the Chicago Bears for nine seasons (2004-12), coaching under current Buccaneers Head Coach Lovie Smith during Smith's tenure in the NFC North. Spencer had great success tutoring Chicago's ball carriers, with individual players recording 1,000-yard rushing seasons on five different occasions (Thomas Jones – 2005-06; Matt Forté – 2008, 2010, 2012), and the team surpassing the 2,000-yard rushing mark twice (2005, 2011), marking the only two times such a feat has been accomplished in Bears history, and coming less than 100 yards shy of that mark in 2006.

Under Spencer's guidance, Forté blossomed, breaking franchise rookie records in 2008 in rushing yards (1,238), yards from scrimmage (1,715) and receptions (63) and becoming one of just one of eight rookies in NFL history to rush for 1,000-plus yards and record 50-plus receptions. In Forté's five seasons with Spencer, the running back became the first player for Chicago to record 1,000-plus yards from scrimmage in each of his first five NFL seasons, the first player in franchise history with 900 rushing yards in each of his first five seasons with the team and the first running back in franchise history with 400 receiving yards in four seasons. Forté was selected to the Pro Bowl following his 2011 campaign in which he ranked third in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (123.9) and sixth in rushing yards per game (83.1).

During Spencer's time with the Bears, Chicago running backs claimed six of the top seven single-season reception totals at the position in team history and compiled 15,472 yards on 3,939 carries.

Spencer began his coaching career at The Ohio State University, where he tutored running backs from 1994-2003. With the Buckeyes, Spencer coached Eddie George during George's Heisman Trophy-winning season in 1995 and during the team's national championship season in 2002. He was part of three Big Ten championship teams and his position group helped an OSU offense that led the Big Ten in scoring offense and total offense in three of his 10 seasons. Including George (twice), he produced 1,000-yard rushers on six occasions.

A Buckeye running back himself, Spencer played for OSU from 1979-1982, leading the team in rushing during his final two seasons and closing his career with 3,553 yards on the ground and serving as a senior co-captain and team MVP. Spencer was the second-overall pick in the 1983 USFL draft, where he played one year each for Chicago (1983), Arizona (1984), and Memphis (1985), before playing for the San Diego Chargers (1985-90), where he was a four-year starter at fullback.

Spencer and his wife, Gilda, have two sons, Cole and Evan. Evan, who played wide at Ohio State, was selected by the Washington Redskins in the sixth round (187th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft.

JON ROBINSON
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jon Robinson enters his second season with the Buccaneers in 2015, working as the director of player personnel. In this role, Robinson oversees all areas of the scouting department, both college and pro, including advance scouting, free agency preparation, evaluating players in the NFL and all other professional leagues, as well as assisting with college scouting and preparation for the NFL Draft.

This past spring, Robinson assisted negotiations and contract offers for the 2015 free agent class. Last season, he helped to bring in the team's waiver claims, including Jacquies Smith, who contributed 6.5 sacks on the season.

Robinson joined the Buccaneers after 12 seasons with the New England Patriots (2002-2013), where he spent four seasons working with current Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht (2002, 2009-11). Most recently, Robinson worked as the Patriots' director of college scouting (2009-13), helping oversee the drafting of several key contributors: wide receiver Julian Edelman (seventh round, 2009), defensive back Devin McCourty (first round, 2010), tight end Rob Gronkowski (second round, 2010), tackle Nate Solder (first round, 2011) and defensive end Chandler Jones (first round, 2012).

Prior to the 2008 season, Robinson spent two years as a regional scout (2006-07) and four years as an area scout (2002-05) for the Patriots. During his time in New England, Robinson was a part of an organization that won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls.

A native of Union City, Tennessee, Robinson signed with the U.S. Air Force Academy out of high school, before transferring to Southeast Missouri State, where he played for three seasons and earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics education. Following his playing career, he coached at his alma mater in 1998, before moving on to coach at Nicholls State for three seasons (1999-2001), where he worked until joining New England.

Jon and his wife, Jaimie, were married in 2002 and have two daughters, Taylor Brooke and Bailey Rae.

MIKE BIEHL
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Mike Biehl enters his second season with Tampa Bay in 2014, working as the team's director of college scouting, where he is responsible for coordinating and compiling evaluations of all draft-eligible players, while overseeing the entire college scouting staff.

Biehl came to the Buccaneers with 16 seasons of NFL experience, including 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2001-13). Biehl worked as the club's assistant director of college scouting for six seasons (2008-13), after being promoted from college scout (2001-07), where he scouted the Midwest region of the country. Over that span, the Chargers had the eighth-most wins in the NFL, won five AFC West division championships and made six playoff appearances.

Prior to his time with the Chargers, Biehl spent three seasons (1998-2000) working in the Buffalo Bills' personnel department, during which time the Bills had the NFL's sixth-best record and qualified for the playoffs twice.

A native of Champaign, Illinois, Biehl attended Illinois State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in sports management.

Mike and his wife, Kim, have two children: son, Nathan, and daughter, Kendall.

MIKE GREENBERG
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Mike Greenberg enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers and third as director of football administration, having spent the previous two seasons as the coordinator of football administration, and originally joining the club as player personnel assistant in 2010.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Jason Licht on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as Club's financial and strategic planning. He also oversees budgeting for all football operations, including the coaching, scouting, video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

Greenberg joined the Buccaneers after working with the New York Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football League's Management Council and as a summer associate at Jaspan Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and with a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law in 2010. He also was the research editor for the Hofstra Law Review. Greenberg is licensed to practice law in New York and New Jersey. Mike and his wife, Ilana, reside in Tampa.

SHELTON QUARLES
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

After spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) establishing himself as one of the best linebackers in Buccaneers history, Quarles joined Tampa Bay's front office. This season, Quarles enters his second year as director of football operations, after spending two seasons as director of pro scouting, a title he earned after two years as coordinator of pro scouting and four years as a pro scout for Tampa Bay.

In his current role, Quarles will work directly with the head coach and general manager in organizing day-to-day operations of the team, while assisting with roster management and contract negotiations, advising the pro personnel department on advance scouting and overseeing all player travel and transportation.

While operating as director of pro scouting, Quarles was in charge of handling the team's pro personnel staff and evaluating players. Working as the coordinator of pro scouting, Quarles was responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts. During his time as a pro scout, Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. In 2010, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record, finding multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and is the first and one of only two players in team history to record a touchdown and a safety (also Rondé Barber) during their career. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also earned numerous awards during his playing career, including the NFL Unsung Hero Award in 2002, the Buccaneers Man of the Year Award in 2004 and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2006.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonquarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. In the 2011 offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, the late Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles' retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Currently, Quarles serves on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (September 2009-present) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading. This year, Quarles was named the Trailblazer of Our Children's Future by the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office and won the Tower of Achievement Award for outstanding leadership and contributions by the USF Area Community Civic Associations.

BUCCANEERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
DECEMBER 29, 1979
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0
JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA – In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charle Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

1981 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 38, TAMPA BAY 0
TEXAS STADIUM (64,848)

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17
TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS – For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dextor Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10
DECEMBER 28, 1997
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA – In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

1997 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7
LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY – The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

1999 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

1999 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3
DECEMBER 31, 2000
VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9
VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA – Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

2002 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6
JANUARY 12, 2003
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defensed, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO – Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

2005 NFC WILD CARD GAME

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA – Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL RING

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

SIDELINES

RING OF HONOR

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice – and the team's first-ever draft selection – in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneers player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible, occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority and taking on responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976-80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JOHN McKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the first Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettsville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John, Rich, Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

JIMMIE GILES

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was instated on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdown receptions during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to ranks highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

Gruber joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, as he was inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.

Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

WARREN SAPP

2013 marked a momentous year for Warren Sapp, one of the greatest players in Buccaneers history.

On February 2, he was selected as a first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three months later, on May 2, Tampa Bay announced that not only would Sapp be the club's 2012 Ring of Honor pick, but that the team would also officially retire his iconic No. 99 jersey.

Warren Sapp was selected as a first-ballot Hall of Famer in 2013, joining Lee Roy Selmon as the second Buccaneers representative to achieve that honor.

Sapp was drafted by the Buccaneers in the first round (12th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft. He played nine years with Tampa Bay, appearing in 140 games and starting 130, while also starting each of his nine postseason contests. He continued his playing career playing four seasons with the Oakland Raiders, and retired having played 198 career games with 188 starts, recording career totals of 695 tackles, 96.5 sacks, four interceptions with one touchdown, 26 passes defensed, 20 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries.

An integral cog in one of the league's top defenses of the late 1990s and early 2000s, Sapp helped lead the 2002 Buccaneers to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. He earned numerous other accolades, including seven Pro Bowl nods, four first-team All-Pro nominations, two second-team All-Pro nominations, NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was twice named to the NFL All-Decade Team.

Sapp's 96.5 sacks stands as the second-most by an interior lineman in league history and he is often credited for having helped revolutionize the defensive tackle position. He set Tampa Bay's single-season record with his 16.5 sacks in 2000, the third-highest total ever recorded by a defensive tackle. In each of his last seven seasons with the Buccaneers, the team's defense ranked in the league's Top 10.

Prior to drafting Sapp, the Buccaneers had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons. By his third year, Tampa Bay was appearing in the postseason and, over the next seven years, the team never had a losing record, made the playoffs six times and won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Sapp's career was headlined by his incredible passion, overwhelming talent and legendary personality. He led the Tampa Bay defense with intense devotion and leadership, and his fervor was evident to everyone who watched him play.

Sapp played three seasons at the University of Miami, foregoing his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. As a Hurricane, he recorded 176 tackles, 19.5 sacks, five passes defensed, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He won the Lombardi Trophy for the nation's top lineman/linebacker and was a finalist for the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman.

DERRICK BROOKS

Derrick Brooks, a first-ballot Class of 2014 selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2014.

Drafted as a first-round pick (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, Brooks entered the league alongside Warren Sapp, the first-rounder the Buccaneers had selected 12th overall. The two players would both go on to dominate at their respective positions, combining their prowess to turn the Tampa 2 into one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history.

Brooks spent 14 seasons with Tampa Bay, redefining the linebacker position on his way to becoming one of the most decorated Buccaneers of all time, and one of the most respected players across the NFL.

He played in 224 games with 221 starts, both marks standing as second-most in team history, and recorded a franchise-record 2,198 tackles, along with 25 interceptions, 13.5 sacks, 135 passes defensed, 25 forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries. Brooks' seven defensive touchdowns rank second in team history, behind only defensive back Rondé Barber, and he is the only non-defensive back to crack the Top 5 in the team's career interception list.

Brooks proved to be exceptional both on and off the field, earning some of the NFL's most revered awards for his play and his volunteerism.

Brooks earned accolade after accolade during his playing years, being selected as an All-Pro by the Associated Press nine times and totaling franchise-best 11 Pro Bowl berths. In 2002, he was named AP Defensive Player of the Year.

He is also responsible for one of the standout plays in Buccaneer history: a 44-yard interception returned for a touchdown that sealed Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

However, beyond Brooks' impact on the field, he was - and continues to be - a difference maker in the Bay Area community. Among his many philanthropic honors, Brooks was co-recipient of the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year and received both the 2003 Bart Starr Award and the 2004 Byron "Whizzer" White Award, some of the most revered honors in the league.

Always a strong proponent of education, Brooks dedicated himself both during his career and following his retirement to filling the needs of students, which began with his The Brooks Bunch program, which served as a cornerstone of his community involved and led the way for the formation of Derrick Brooks Charities, Inc.

Brooks also helped found the Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School; a Hillsborough County sponsored charter high school that currently enrolls over 400 students and serves as the only traditional charter high school in the Bay Area.

A standout player at Florida State University, Brooks was a four-year letterwinner and first-team All-American and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection. His career statistics include 274 tackles, five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In addition to his selection to the Ring of Honor, Brooks was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2014, the third Buccaneers player to be enshrined in Canton.

MIKE ALSTOTT

Mike Alstott was selected as one of two inductees into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former quarterback Doug Williams.

Alstott came to Tampa Bay as a second-round selection (35th overall) out of Purdue in the 1996 NFL Draft and quickly rose to acclaim as one of the league's most powerful, punishing rushers, running with a hard-nosed style that earned him the nickname 'A-Train.'

A six-time Pro Bowl selection - a franchise record for an offensive player - and four-time Associated Press All-Pro honoree, Alstott is the Buccaneers' all-time leader in touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (58). He ranks second in franchise annals with 5,088 rushing yards, second in yards from scrimmage (7,372), fourth in receptions (305), and seventh in games played (158).

Alsott's bruising running style and not-to-be-denied goal-line carries made him a legend in the Bay Area and throughout the league.

In eight of his 11 seasons, Alstott led or tied the team lead in rushing touchdowns, recording a career-best 10 in 2001 and twice rushing for three touchdowns in a single game (vs. Minnesota, 10/28/2001; at Cincinnati, 12/27/1998). He recorded seven 100-yard rushing games during his career.

In addition to the accolades he earned during the regular season, Alstott also holds a decorated place in Buccaneers postseason lore. He was a member of six playoff teams and played in 10 postseason contests, both tied for second-most in franchise history behind only Derrick Brooks, and the most ever by an offensive player.

Alstott was part of five Buccaneer playoff victories, tied for a franchise best, while his 341 rushing yards are also the most in club history. Alstott's seven postseason touchdowns, all rushing, are five more than any other player in team history. Four of those scores came en route to the Super Bowl XXXVII title in San Diego following the 2002 season. Alstott also ranks third in postseason receptions (21) and fourth in postseason receiving yards (161).

During his career, Alstott was an active community supporter and his dedication to civic duty only increased since his retirement. During the 2007 offseason, Alstott and his wife Nicole formed the Mike Alstott Family Foundation, with the goal of assisting and uplifting the minds, hearts and spirits of families and children on their way to realizing their full potential through various events, assistance programs and celebrations.

Since the formation of his foundation, Alstott and his family have been involved in organizing and helping carry out numerous outreach events, including frequent programs with All-Children's Hospital; partnering with Big Brothers and Big Sisters; raising funds for the Angelus House, a home for children with disabilities; and special events catered to serving the area's foster children

DOUG WILLIAMS

Doug Williams was selected as one of two inductees into the Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former fullback Mike Alstott.

Williams joined the Buccaneers as the team's first-round draft choice (17th overall) in the 1978 NFL Draft out of Grambling State and was immediately saddled with the hopes of a struggling franchise searching for a long-term solution at the quarterback position.

Taking over the reins of a team that had won two games combined in its first two NFL seasons, Williams' rookie year led to 10 starts and four wins. He would then start every game over the next four seasons and, in his sophomore season, he engineered one of the most unforeseen success stories of the era when he led the Buccaneers to the 1979 NFC Central Division crown and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Williams also took the Buccaneers to a division title in 1981 and led his team to a record above .500 in three of his final four seasons (1979, 1981-82) as Tampa Bay's quarterback. In comparison, from 1976-96, without Williams under center, the franchise did not register another winning season.

Leading Tampa Bay to its first three playoff appearances - including all the way to the NFC Championship Game in 1979 - Williams made an indelible mark on the Buccaneers franchise.

In that four-year stretch from 1979-82, Williams started all of the team's 57 regular season games and three playoff contests. Among his peers during that span, Williams ranked seventh in passing yards (11,369), 10th in touchdown passes (66), and seventh in lowest interception rate (3.8 percent). He also topped all quarterbacks during that period with 856 rushing yards and tied for the most rushing touchdowns with 12.

Williams later played in the USFL (1984-85) before joining the Washington Redskins in 1987, where he won Super Bowl XXII Most Valuable Player honors after leading them to a victory over Denver. The Buccaneers would not reach the playoffs again for a decade and a half, until after the team had been purchased by Malcolm Glazer.

Following his playing career, Williams entered the coaching profession and went on to serve two stints as head coach of his college alma mater (1998-2003, 2011-13), winning four conference championships.

Williams has also served as a personnel executive in NFL front offices, first with the Buccaneers from 2004-10 and currently with the Redskins after being hired in 2014.

Williams is also a member of the Washington Redskins Ring of Fame and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. As a collegiate player at Grambling, Williams posted a 36-7 record as the starting quarterback and finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1977.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as "The Crown Jewel of the NFL" by league insiders upon its opening, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League, the University of South Florida football team and college football's Outback Bowl.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer. Buccaneers Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2014 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s Pirate Ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew on game day which s responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

• Ship Length	103'
• Ship Weight	43 tons
• Ship Height	78'
• Bow Detail	9'x7'
• Ship Width	32'
• Swords	16' each

The Pirate Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

The Buccaneers make their home at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility and team operations center that opened in 2006 and is located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium.

The 136,320-square-foot complex is complete with every amenity and advancement necessary to operate on the highest level, and is a combination of function, style and space. No effort was spared in its creation, from the towering steel-and-glass football entrance to the meticulously kept practice fields.

One Buc, as it is commonly called, houses both all team, coaching and front office areas, as well as the team's business operations center.

Below is a closer look at some of the headquarters' features that players utilize on a daily basis.

LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at One Buccaneer Place covers 6,600 square feet and is an open design that gives a spacious feel. The lockers are four feet across and oak paneled, with drawers, shelves and hooks for storage of all equipment, though some players keep their areas more organized than others! The locker room also includes a large shower and restroom area, complete with a steam room and sauna.

Across the hall from the locker room is the players' lounge, which looks out onto the practice fields. The room is decorated with comfortable leather couches and chairs and features a large entertainment center, two custom Buccaneers pool tables, video arcade machines and more.

The lounge provides extra space for players during downtime, whether it's to grab a snack, play pool or video games with teammates, or even grab a quick nap.

TRAINING ROOM

The Buccaneers' training room, under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Bobby Slater, offers a complete center to cater to the health and well-being of the team.

The training room includes a main space filled with taping tables and related equipment, an expansive rehab area, and a large physician's room, allowing the club's attending physician the ability to see a player privately.

Furthermore, players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room, which contains three large tubs: one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill, giving injured players the best chance to fully recover.

WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at One Buc is contained in its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

The weight room is outfitted with an impressive sound system and the wall that faces the practice fields is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and inviting.

TEAM AUDITORIUM AND POSITION ROOMS

Each day, players and coaches take part in a team meeting, where Head Coach Lovie Smith addresses the entire group. This takes place in the spacious team auditorium, which is comprised of a large stage surrounded by stadium-style seating, each large chair complete with a desktop to allow players to take notes. From the stage, coaches can roll game or practice film on a large projection screen to discuss with the team highlights or areas that need improvement. The rich wood paneling behind the stage features a giant carved Buccaneers logo.

When it comes time to go over details position-by-position, coaches and players can break out into their own individual position meeting rooms.

Each meeting room looks like a plush, state-of-the-art classroom, with the expected desks and whiteboards, but also a command station for the coaches, with a video and computer system that allows the coaching staff or players to access a vast array of video cutups from practice sessions, Buccaneers games or opponent games. This system includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Dave Levy's crew. Every practice is shot by several video workers on lifts located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

One Buccaneer Place consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a comfortable media studio for press conferences and workroom for local press.

What is One Buc's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

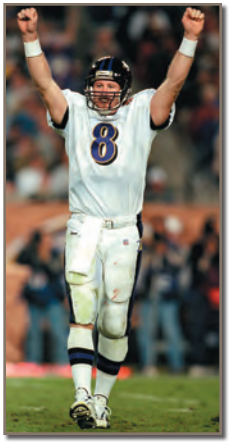
SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defensed, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Santonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

SUPER BOWL XXXV



On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defensed against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for some public figure or local sports legend, but rather a thriving diversified financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg – Raymond James Financial.

The company has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and is the official investment services and financial planning provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The firm's name actually comes from the 1962 merger of two financial service companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments – and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a full and holistic understanding of each client's situation and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James is a multinational company with distinct business units that serve a variety of clients, from individuals and small business owners to municipalities and major corporations.

RAYMOND JAMES & THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS TEAM UP TO HELP OTHERS

Back in 1962, Bob James founded Raymond James on the principle that putting others first – from our clients to our neighbors – was the right thing to do. His deep commitment to doing what's right remains a core part of the company today. His legacy is continued through the investment of time, money and talents into the communities we serve. It's so much more than tradition; it's a way of thanking those who've supported the firm from the start.

During the football season, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up for two charitable programs: Kicking for Kids and Sack Hunger.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 16th year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through the Kicking for Kids program.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes funds to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $271,000 for local children's hospitals.

SACK HUNGER

Since the 2000 season, Raymond James and the Glazer Family Foundation have worked to "sack hunger" by stocking Tampa Bay-area food banks before the Thanksgiving holiday. This effort has collected more than 117.5 tons of nonperishable food items along with funding to provide approximately 242,693 meals for families through special drives and game-day collections at the stadium.

This year's annual Sack Hunger game-day food drive will be held in November. Visit sackhunger.com to learn more.

RAYMOND JAMES SUPPORT OF THE ARTS

A deep appreciation for the arts permeates the culture at Raymond James and is reflected at the firm's corporate headquarters, where more than 2,400 works of art are on display as part of the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection.

A virtual tour of some of the collection is available at raymondjames.com/art. Tours of the art displayed at the Raymond James international headquarters can also be arranged.

In addition to sponsoring several art shows in the community each year, Raymond James is also a continuing sponsor of local theater and other performing arts venues in the Tampa Bay area. The company hopes its actions will help encourage others – corporations and individuals – to support not only live theater, but all forms of artistic expression.

Since 1976, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders have charmed the team's avid fans, performed to worldwide acclaim, and cheered the team to a Super Bowl Championship.

The 24 to 30 women that comprise the squad are chosen from hundreds of candidates each year to represent the team and include athletes, educators, professionals, students and mothers. These talented women are committed both to the team and the community, making a large number of appearances for both corporate and non-profit events throughout their term.

In addition to their work within the Tampa Bay Area, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders also serve as ambassadors for the organization throughout the United States and beyond, traveling to locations in Asia, Canada, Egypt, Japan, Europe, Australia, California, Texas and Hawaii.

Glazer Children's Museum

In 2010, the Foundation helped create a new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders: the Glazer Children's Museum.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened on September 25, 2010 along the waterfront in downtown Tampa. The 53,000 square-foot building is not a typical museum, but a place with activities, games and challenges that allows children to learn in an exciting, stimulating environment. The world-class facility has already hosted more than 1,000,000 guests since opening in 2010 and been honored both locally and nationally for educational excellence and economic impact. In 2012, the Tampa Bay Business Journal named the Glazer Children's Museum as its Arts, Culture and Humanities "Nonprofit of the Year."

A combination of permanent and traveling exhibits, comprehensive year-round programs and special events provide children, parents, caregivers and teachers with a rich and ever-changing atmosphere for playful learning. Kids can enjoy more than 170 unique, interactive exhibits called 'Interactivities' throughout 12 differently-themed areas committed to education and imagination. Children can pretend to be airplane pilots, cruise ship captains, construction workers, fire fighters, doctors and more in a safe, engaging environment.

Having established impactful partnerships with schools, nonprofit organizations and civic leaders, the Glazer Children's Museum serves as an invaluable resource to the community. A main attraction in downtown Tampa and a destination for local residents, regional visitors and tourists, the Museum is in a class all its own. For hours of operation, directions and more information, visit www.GlazerMuseum.org.
